

Religious Education Newsletter Week of January 30th

1st – 11th graders do NOT have class this week. The catechists are meeting for some learning opportunities and time to plan lessons for the next few weeks of class.

A week off of class doesn't mean that learning cannot happen. Attached are some activities for all members of the family to do together at home. We suggest doing them during the time students would be at class. These activities focus on respect life, which was the newsletter theme from last week.

Schedule for the Week...

4K and 5K Students have class on Sunday during the 9am Mass at St. John's.

- Class will be held in room 4 of the school hallway

St. John's middle and high school students are strongly encouraged to sign-up to help at Winterfest with the children's games. Lots of help is needed and service hours are available. Winterfest is February 12th. Contact Lisa Bates at 467-3109 or mlbateswi@charter.net to sign-up. You are needed!!!

2nd – 6th grade Blessed Trinity students are reminded of Kinderchor (children's choir) practice happening on Thursday at 3:45-4:30pm in church. A flyer was sent home last week from director Zach Holzer. Let's have a huge turnout!

Last week we forgot to send home a Mass Reflection Sheet for the 1-6 grade students for the weekend of February 4/5. Please go to <http://blessedtrinityparish.org/Reled/Downloads.htm> to print off a copy. 7-11 grade sheets are in the weekend bulletins.

There are a few spots open for any high school student interested in attending Catholic Heart Workcamp this summer in Davison, Michigan. Contact trip coordinator Shirl Breunig to reserve your spot. 627-5094 or jsmbreunig3@bytehead.com

Blessed Trinity parish member, Mary Alice Schleicher, has contacted the RE Office looking for lawn mowing and yard work help for this summer. This is a paid position lasting throughout the summer. Interested students may contact Mary Alice at 467-4723.

Thoughts for your family: compare three favorite meals, go food shopping together, and recognize achievements as they happen.

Until Next Time,
Julie and Jackie
